

BRAINSTORMS

WITH FERRIN COX

The letter to the editor column this week carries an editor's response, and we hope this matter can be settled rather than continue to fester. We hesitated in writing the response, to use "manure" when the letter and previous mention in this paper had used "fertilizer." However, after remembering a story told about the late President Harry Truman we felt OK. The story is that his wife, Bess, was approached to get the plain speaking President to stop using "barnyard manure." She is said to have responded that it took her twenty years to get him to use the mildly offensive "manure" and she sure wasn't going to rock that boat and chance having him revert back to his old ways! If it is good enough for Harry Truman, then it is good enough for the readers of this newspaper.

Mayor Folsom tells us that his much heralded program to funnel federal funds into Elba through "Pro-Action" has been delayed. He says the feds will not approve the money for work at the dam because the feasibility study isn't completed. This really is a nice way for them to say we have been turned down on Elba's application. A side note on this grant application is to verify some figures in last week's paper. We have had several folks ask us about the total cost of the project. Reportedly there is a $15,000 or so additional proposed state grant but most of the $400,000 balance would come from the City of Elba in purchases of materials or "in-kind" services, such as using a vehicle and charging so much an hour for its use. At this point it seems that, unless the tables are turned or the sky falls, we had better not start hiring folks to work on the project.

County Democratic Chairman Jackson W. Stokes (that is Bill) has put out the word about a meeting of the county committee this Saturday, and candidates will start registering for county offices. It hardly seems possible but it is a fact. It is real easy for me to remember the meeting four years ago when the present commissioners qualified. It also was Saturday and was Valentine's Day. Someone from the office came into the meeting in the upstairs courtroom of the County Courthouse and whispered to me that Hedy wanted me at the office right then. This is real unusual, but knowing she didn't make much idle talk under such conditions promptly reported in and before the day was over I was the father of another boy, several weeks prior to scheduled time. This Saturday nor the next time, there will be no such activities around our house, that I can promise!

The annual Bluegrass Festival is the event of the week. The Elba Jaycees have decreed. Now ye ole editor ain't a Bluegrass fan, but the excitement and anticipation coming forth from the Jaycees is a little catching. We are going to ease out there this weekend and have a look-see and maybe speak to a few friends. This is one of those "good things" we are often referring to and wanting folks to remember Elba for, rather than the bads as we often get.

The city elections are looming in a few weeks in Elba and other surrounding towns. Politicians and wood-be politicians live a rough life. The voting (and non-voting) public can be quite cruel to candidates and officeholders. We have a certain respect for candidates, regardless of their abilities. However, we couldn't help but laugh Tuesday when told of the troubles of a certain council candidate. It seems a particular candidate asked this outspoken young man for his vote and rather than get a smile and/or evasive answer or even "I am sorry but I must vote for your opponent," the man reportedly said, "I would vote for a handful of (you fill in) before I vote for you." You have to appreciate the honesty, but I am sure it makes the candidate's day a little longer.

Other folks have joined us in speculating on the future of Senator Kennedy. He is now facing some open hostility from the real world of politics. People know President Carter has beat Kennedy for the nomination, and waiting for future blessings from the top in Washington, they have been forced to snub Kennedy and this is something a Kennedy has never faced. One writer, who is a self-proclaimed expert from the nation's capital, has openly speculated that we are now witnessing the complete fall from the national scene of Teddy Kennedy. We don't really know this as a fact, but could sleep well with the information as a fact.

When questioned about our continued support of President Carter, we remind folks that we are not the ones guilty of putting him in office the first time and that we liked Ford and his programs of keeping both inflation and unemployment under control.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Mr. Cox:

This letter is written in response to the remarks about the Second Annual Deep South Racking Horse Show in last week's paper by your Sports Editor, Ricky Mulaz.

It was not the intention of the Elba Volunteer Fire Department nor the Deep South Racking Horse Association to destroy, misuse or abuse the property belonging to the City of Elba. It was their intention to bring something new to Elba and at the same time make money for the purchase of new fire fighting equipment.

In our opinion, the grounds were not "torn up" as described in Mr. Mulaz's hearsay report. No preparation whatsoever had been done to make the grounds presentable to the many out of town visitors which an event of this magnitude attracts. The people involved in making this event a success cleaned the grounds prior to the show and again after the show.

This included the removal of any "smelly stuff" left to fertilize the grass.

I am sorry that the ballgames scheduled for Friday night, May 30, 1980, had to be cancelled. However, Friday night, May 30, 1980, graduation exercises were taking place at Tiger Stadium and as usual for the fine citizens of Elba, their support was with our graduates.

After reading Mr. Mulaz's critical remarks, this writer found the Elba Recreation Director, Dennis Smith, and attempted to make restitution for any damage that we might have done to the Recreation Center. This included anything of monetary value as well as the re-sodding of any portion of the Recreation Center that might impair the safety and welfare of a ballplayer. I was informed that none of the above would be required.

The Second Annual Deep South Racking Horse Show grossed between $9,000.00 and $10,000.00. After expenses, the profits will exceed approximately $5,000.00. Is this not better than standing in the middle of the road with a bucket and an extended hand?

In closing, if the City Administration and the majority of the citizens of Elba feel that this event is not good for the growth and economy of Elba and want no part of it, then this decision will be accepted and a new place will be found to host the Third Annual Deep South Racking Horse Show scheduled for May 30, 1980.

I am sorry that the ballgames scheduled for Friday night, May 30, 1980, had to be cancelled. However, Friday night, May 30, 1980, graduation exercises were taking place at Tiger Stadium and as usual for the fine citizens of Elba, their support was with our graduates.

After reading Mr. Mulaz's critical remarks, this writer found the Elba Recreation Director, Dennis Smith, and attempted to make restitution for any damage that we might have done to the Recreation Center. This included anything of monetary value as well as the re-sodding of any portion of the Recreation Center that might impair the safety and welfare of a ballplayer. I was informed that none of the above would be required.

The Second Annual Deep South Racking Horse Show grossed between $9,000.00 and $10,000.00. After expenses, the profits will exceed approximately $5,000.00. Is this not better than standing in the middle of the road with a bucket and an extended hand?

In closing, if the City Administration and the majority of the citizens of Elba feel that this event is not good for the growth and economy of Elba and want no part of it, then this decision will be accepted and a new place will be found to host the Third Annual Deep South Racking Horse Show scheduled for May 30, 1980.

BARGAIN TOWN U.S.A.

Kenny Ware, right, of Elba recently completed his 5th year of employment at ConAgra Poultry. Presenting Kenny, who works in the Live Haul Department, with his 5 year award is Charles Blanton, Live Haul Supervisor.

The fun started early that lovely God-given Sunday morning as the doorbell began to ring merrily, announcing the arrival of family members from as far north as Boaz; as far south as Tallahassee; as far east as Atlanta and as far southwest as Mobile. All in all, a total of 68 descendants and their families attended this 6th annual reunion of the Jones clan.

Children of Mr. and Mrs. Jones are: Mrs. Mae (J.S.) Johnson, a resident of Columbus, Georgia, until her death; Mrs. Eric (Howard) Wise, New Brockton; Mrs. Minnie (Carl) Brooks, Calvary, Alabama; Mrs. Ruth (Dewey) Rowe, formerly of Marianna, Florida, and now a resident of Deland, Florida, who was unable to attend; Mrs. Jessie (Mack) Heath, Birmingham; Mr. Louie F. Jones, now deceased, but who made his home in New Brockton; Mr. Herbert Jones, deceased, also a resident of New Brockton until his death; Mr. John I. Jones, formerly of New Brockton and now living in Enterprise; Mrs. Kate (Claude) Sawyer, New Brockton; and Mrs. Wise.

A bountiful dinner was enjoyed by all, before which Mr. Jones offered a poignant prayer of thanks.

A highlight of the reunion was the viewing of an old filmstrip of the wedding of a cousin and seeing how everyone, and styles of dress and hair fashions had changed from the mid-50's to the present.

Another highlight was the presentation to each family a copy of the history of the Byrd-Jones families and their trek from England via Virginia to Alabama in the 1600's.

A great time was enjoyed by all and plans were made for another get-together next year.

Hayes and Hawkins serve as representatives of the city of Elba, one of four cities served directly by Alabama Electric Cooperative (AEC) with wholesale electrical power. In addition to its municipal members, AEC also serves 15 distribution cooperatives and two industries.

AEC is the state's only generation and transmission cooperative. As a cooperative, it is governed by a Board of Trustees composed of two representatives of each of the member systems. The Board determines the need for new generation and transmission facilities by the Cooperative and establishes the policies to insure the AEC continues to provide reliable electrical power at the lowest possible cost.

Hayes has served on the AEC Board since 1975. He is the chairman of the Utilities Board for the city of Elba. He is the owner of the Hayes Funeral Home in Elba.

Hawkins was elected to the Board in July of 1979. He currently serves as voluntary Superintendent of the Water and Electric Service for the city of Elba. He also served as a city council member for Elba. He is a retired civil service employee having worked for 19 years with the U. S. Army. He serves on AEC's Engineering and Operations Committee.

Jones Family Reunion Held Sunday

The descendants of the late William Curtis "Bill" Jones and Sallie King Jones of New Brockton met Sunday, June 8, 1980, in the home of one of the surviving daughters, Mrs. James J. Wise, Sr. (Mary Alice), of Elba, for a day of fellowship, fun and reminiscing.

Massive arrangements of multi-hued hydrangeas in a blue cut-glass epergne on the dining room table, and colorful day lilies in a crystal vase on a round table in the den added to the beauty of the occasion.

The fun started early that lovely God-given Sunday morning as the doorbell began to ring merrily, announcing the arrival of family members from as far north as Boaz; as far south as Tallahassee; as far east as Atlanta and as far southwest as Mobile. All in all, a total of 68 descendants and their

NEWS from your PHARMACIST

BY: KRIS SCARBOROUGH

Many persons suffer from some form of dandruff. This common, and annoying condition, is an inflammation of the scalp. There are two distinct types of dandruff. One is dry dandruff, and the other is oily dandruff. Both are the result of excessive production of oil by the oil glands.

If the oil secretion evaporates quickly, a condition known as dry dandruff results. Oily dandruff is the result of the oil staying on the scalp and in the hair causing greasy hair. Scaling of the scalp is common to both types of dandruff and is a warning signal to begin treatment.

We have a number of preparations which are designed to alleviate dandruff. Let us take care of all your medicinal needs. Your health is the primary concern of our pharmacists.

consistently produces high yields of excellent quality nuts. The nuts are about the same size as those you find in the store. The nuts are dark or chocolate brown. Another chestnut AU-Leader is also an excellent variety and is larger than the AU-Cropper. Another variety AU-Homestead is also excellent and matures over a longer period of time which is desirable for the home owner. Nurseries should have these varieties for the planting season coming up this fall.

Extension Agent Dan Presley mentioned to me that a number of Coffee County swine producers can participate in the Wiregrass Swine Evaluation Station. The Boar Test Station at Headland was set up about three years ago to identify superior breeding stock in the Tri-States area. Purchased swine producers who are interested in getting additional information on this program should call Dan Presley at 894-5396 or 897-2776 or Jerry Van Dyke at 693-2010.

Farm Facility Loan Maximum Increased

Secretary of Agriculture Bob Bergland announced that the amount a farmer may borrow under the farm storage facility loan program has been increased from $50,000 to $100,000. The loan increase is being authorized to reflect higher costs of construction and materials, Bergland said. Under this program, loans are offered by the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service to help farmers buy, build or remodel on-farm storage facilities and to obtain needed drying and handling equipment.

The maximum loan is 85 percent of the cost of the structures and equipment. Under the new maximum, the aggregate outstanding loan balance maximum also increased to $100,000. Bergland said. A minimum down payment of 15 percent of the cost must be paid in cash by the farmer before the loan is disbursed. Loan repayment terms

Martha Stephens Appointed To State Food Stamp Advisory Committee

Mrs. Martha F. Stephens, Supervisor of the Coffee County Food Stamp Program, has recently been appointed to serve on the State Food Stamp Advisory Committee. This appointment was made by Mr. Gary Cooper, Commissioner, State Department of Pensions and Security and Mr. John W. Hunt, Director, Bureau of Food Assistance. Mrs. Stephens has also participated in a special assignment at the request of the State Bureau of Food Assistance in Montgomery. She was one of seven Food Stamp Supervisors selected to participate in this assignment which was the writing of the new Food Stamp Handbook which is now being used statewide in the administration of the Food Stamp Program. The Food Stamp Program has been in existence in Coffee County since 1974 and currently serves approximately 1500 households with a total monthly issuance of about $114,000. These 1500 households represent approximately 4000 people in a large element of the county's population. This program affects every phase of the county's economy. Eligible households who formerly had to spend most of their monthly income for food can now divert some of that income to other phases of need such as clothing, furniture, and other necessities. The Food Stamp Program from a national standpoint recently faced the possibility of a reduction or cancellation of food stamp benefits, but the U.S. Congress appropriated funds late in May to continue the program at the present level of benefits.

I got an issue of "Super Slowpitch" in the mail last week, and read many interesting stories. The newspaper is devoted entirely to softball, and is a must for all true softball fans!

Some of the more notable stories were:
Bruce Meade, of Dave Carroll Sports, took part in a hitting exhibition in the Astrodome and slugged 11 home runs, including 2 up in the stands. Being 6-6, 260, doesn't hurt a bit.
Jerry's Caterers, of Miami, played in a tournament in Sarasota, Florida, and won a game 85-6! The team slugged 48 home runs in the game, and one player went 11 for 11 with 7 homers. Jerry's hit a total of 150 home runs in the tourney, which they won, of course.

The newspaper puts out 10 issues a year and costs only $5. If you want to subscribe, just let me know and I'll give you the address.

The Elba Softball Classic and Elba Women's Classic are set for next weekend, but the entries aren't exactly rolling in. The trophies are ready and there is plenty of local interest, but as of Tuesday the tourney was a long way from being filled. Oh well, maybe everyone is waiting till the last minute!

I've got a desk full of fish pictures I haven't had a chance to use, but I'll get to them as soon as possible. I only have a limited amount of space to work with, and once it's filled, I just stick the fish pictures back in the desk. But, never fear - I will use all of 'em!

The Men's Softball League is now divided, and there is nothing but close games every night. Come on out and watch a game tonight

I believe the people of Elba want to TURN OUR TOWN AROUND!!

I believe the people of Elba really mean business this time!!

I believe the folks of Elba are tired of the CIRCUS-LIKE ATMOSPHERE IN THE CONDUCT OF OUR CITY AFFAIRS!!

I believe our people want city BUSINESS conducted in a BUSINESS-LIKE MANNER.

I believe citizens of our town want harmony in our city government.

I hope, trust and believe you will help me make these changes - both for OUR SAKES and our CHILDREN'S SAKES.

I respectfully ask you to make me YOUR MAYOR on July 8.
